REGULAR PROJECTIONS OF KNOTS, LINKS AND SPATIAL GRAPHS

KOUKI TANIYAMA

A regular projection is a shadow on the plane of a spatial graph. In contrast to regular diagram, regular projection has no over/under crossing information. We consider the set of all regular projections of a given spatial graph, and ask how much information does it carry. We introduce some recent topics on this problem.

WASEDA UNIVERSITY